netted ten tallics.

Leily Brown was a complete puzzle to the visitors, holding them to three scattered hits. But for the weird work of the men behind him, he would have held the Colts to a single tally. Nine misplays, five of them wild throws, were rolled up by the locals, and four of them came in the second inning, when the visitors made three of their five runs.

Mixed with their bad fielding, the locals pulled some fast stuff, making two doubles plays. Bates's pretty pickup of a hard drive, and Pleiss's running catch in the eighth were the fielding features.

The visitors played an almost perfect game in the field, but Brown made them look silly at the bat. Harry Mace chased Flournoy from the grounds in the opening round for throwing his cap in the air after the umpire had called him out on strikes. Bruckmiller went to ceptre field in his place.
